

PERSONAL MATTERS

90 mins

Pairs, small groups, plenary

Content How to initiate, maintain and close conversations on familiar topics

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- understand and use vocabulary related to personal relationships
- produce vocabulary in appropriate contexts using simple sentences
- mediate information, state opinions, and offer advice

LEARNING ACTIVITIES

- receive three incomplete stories related to personal relationships. Each group member fills in the gaps with missing vocabulary and shares their story with the group
- in pairs, they mediate information. They prepare and relay key information to their partner
- as homework, they write an email giving advice or describe a personal experience involving a problem with a friend/family member

TEACHING ACTIVITIES

- guide the class through filling in vocabulary gaps in the stories
- facilitate spoken mediation, encourage students to share relevant information
- providing examples of how to ask for/give advice in target language
- organising a class discussion where the teacher presents a personal issue and asks students for advice
- monitor group work and provide feedback on grammar and vocabulary
