

TALK SHOW

30 mins x 2

Plenary and/or group work

Content

Conversation activity to practice various real-life situations

Variation: talk show

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- have a conversation about a given topic
- express opinions
- defend their viewpoints

LEARNING ACTIVITIES

- play an assigned role from the situation
- online learners are interpreters helping another party

Variation: Similar set-up as the above

- Classroom learners prepare roles for a talk show
- Remote learners are experts called in to give their opinion

(Alternatively, they can also be regular remote guests on the show)

TEACHING ACTIVITIES

- prepares necessary phrases and vocabulary etc
- help learners prepare for their roles
- correct learners
- set up camera for exercise

Variation - Same as above

- depending on the group level, can also assume role of talk show host

Materials and tools

- equal split of remote and classroom learners
- several devices needed if beginner level learners and working in groups
- suitable for smaller classes (large groups may require several rounds)

Only 1 device needed

Tips

- No additional tips.